Lesson Plan for Even Semester 2020-21

Class: II Semester of 5 Year B.Com. LL. B

Subject: Law of Torts & Consumer Protection Law

Course Teacher: Dr. Roopa. S

Course Overview

Course Description:

Tort is a civil wrong. This course aims to provide insight into the meaning of torts, mental elements involved in torts, general defences and remedies available for torts. The students would be able to understand the difference between civil wrong and criminal offence. The different kinds of torts are discussed at length. The course also covers procedure, penalties and remedies under other Consumer Protection Act as well as Motor Vehicles Act.

Course Objective:

The course is designed to study the principles of tortious liability, defences available in an action for torts, the capacity of parties to sue and be sued and matters connected there with. Further, this course is designed to study specific torts against the individual and property. With rapid industrialization, inadequacy of the law to protect the individual is exposed. An attempt shall be accorded to the individuals against mass torts and industrial torts. Keeping in the expensive character of judicial proceedings the students should reflect on the alternative forums and also the remedies provided under the Consumer Protection Act, 1986. It also gives an overview of Motor Vehicle Act, 1988.

Proctor Diary

B.M.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi, Bangalore, 560019

Action Taken Report of the Proctor System for the month of September

Date: 25 Sept 2019

Issues Raised	Action Taken
1. Difficulty in understanding Legal method due to nature of the subject. KSLU books are not easy to comprehend.	Principal suggested the Time-Table committee to schedule extra class at the end of the semester. Also, PPT for all the units and notes were shared with the students.
2. Students have requested for model answers of all the subject.	All the faculties submitted one model answer and same is made available in the library.
3. Students have complained about limited copies of prescribed book in the library	Issue was discussed with the librarian for procurement of additional copies of prescribed books by university. It was assured by the Librarian that additional purchase will be made in the coming academic year.
4. Difficulty in understanding IPC due to nature of the subject.	Principal suggested the Time-Table committee to schedule extra class at the end of the semester. Also, PPT for all the units and notes were shared with the students
5. Difficulty in understanding Cr. P.C due to nature of the subject.	Principal suggested the Time-Table committee to schedule extra class at the end of the semester. Also, PPT for all the units and notes were shared with the students

Report of the Proctor System for the month of September

Date: 15 Sept 2019

Under the Proctor system faculty were assigned a number of students whom they are supposed to meet on monthly basis and assess their academic performance, discuss personal issues, if any and render advice to their specific problems. Proctor meeting was conducted in the month of September and some of the students have raised certain issues. This report tries to highlight the concerns of students belonging to B.A. LLB and B.Com LLB.

Students of First semester have expressed their difficulty in understanding Legal methods due to nature of the subject. They have expressed that Legal method books prescribed by KSLU are not easy to comprehend.

Students of Third semester are facing difficulty in writing answers. They have requested for model answers of all the subjects. They have also raised an issue about limited copies of prescribed book in the library.

Students of Fifth Semester are facing difficulty in IPC due to nature of the subject.

Students of Seventh Semester are facing difficulty in Cr.P.C due to nature of the subject.
