To,

Dr. Maria A,

Assistant Professor,

St. Joseph's College, Bengaluru.

Dear Madam,

B.M.S College of Law, a premier Institution of excellence in imparting legal education, was started during the academic year 1963-64 by late Sri. B.S. Narayan, Donor Trustee, BMS Educational Trust.

The College takes pride in its distinguished legacy of having associated with legal luminaries like Justice E.S. Venkataramaiah (former Principal, BMSCL), Justice M.N.Venkatachalaiah, former Chief Justice of India, Dr. B.V Acharya, Former Advocate General who have served the Institution in various capacities. The college has a rich network of eminent Alumni including Hon'ble Justice Nagarjuna Reddy, Judge High Court of Andhra Pradesh, Hon'ble Justice S. N Sathyanarayana, Judge High Court of Karnataka, Former Hon'be Justice P.S. Dinesh Kumar, Judge High Court of Karnataka, Hon'ble Justice Srinivas Harish Kumar, Judge High Court of Karnataka, Hon'ble Justice Narenahalli Srinivasan Sanjay Gowda, Judge High Court of Karnataka, Hon'ble Justice Mahesh Nagaprasanna, Judge High Court of Karnataka.

This course highlights some of the current social problems that need immediate action. The intention is to keep the students aware of the problems, their causes and magnitude of the same in the country. Students will be exposed to an understanding of these social problems from Sociological point of view to prevent these problems. The course highlights the need for agents of social change and awareness that there is an urgent need to help alleviate these issues.

We extend a warm invitation to you to be the Resource Person for the Certificate Course on 'Introduction to Social Problems: A Sociological Perspective', to be held from November 24 to December 10, 2021.

COURSE PLAN FOR THE CERTIFICATE COURSE ON

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND SOCIAL CHANGE

Course Description: It is a growing concern to inculcate a sense of social sensitivity in the minds of the young. Although there is a strong awareness of the existing social problems, it becomes important to have a social perspective in order to avoid biasness in the way we view it. We need discourse to get to the root of the problem rather than have cosmetic and tentative solutions in the form of legal frameworks. It is the minds of the society that needs a change, without which every attempt in addressing any social issue would ultimately be futile.

Course Overview: This course aims at introducing students of Sociology to Social Problems, with special reference to Indian scenario. Students will be briefed about a holistic way to adapt in their approach to view social problems in India. The course will focus on describing the meaning of social problem, ways to identify, role of different stakeholders of the society combat the same.

Course Goals:

- Students will learn to define and frame social problems
- Students will be better versed in understanding the role of NGO's
- Students will learn better through collaborative learning
- Students will be aware of the sense of social sensitivity

Student Learning Outcomes:

- They will be able to understand social problems through sociological lens
- Students will be better versed with critical thinking and problem solving abilities

To,
Dr. Maria A,
Assistant Professor
St. Joseph's College (Autonomous)
Bengaluru.

Respected Ma'am,

On behalf of the Chairman, Principal, Staff and Students of BMS College of Law, Bengaluru, we would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude for accepting our invitation for being the Resource Person for the Certificate Course, 'An Introduction to Social Problems: A Sociological Perspective' conducted from 24 December, 2021 to 10 December 2021.

The course introduced and enriched our students about various social problems and the imperative need to have a sociological perspective in all legal frameworks. The course was informative, research oriented and interactive.

Looking forward to your continued association with BMSCL.

Thanking you.

Dear Anitha,

Greetings from Public Affairs Foundation (PAF).

Public Affairs Foundation (PAF) was established in 2003, as a not-for-profit company under Section 25 of the Companies Act 1956 (now Section 8, under the Companies Act 2013). It is primarily a knowledge-based organisation that is dedicated to improving the quality of public governance by providing advisory services which include developing customised knowledge products to improve social accountability. Our mandates include:

Training and Capacity Building (conducting and developing training materials)
Creating powerful communication outputs
Building Partnership and Networking.

Based on our discussions yesterday I have put together a broad training outline to include key modules, please find the same as an attachment for your use.

Please feel free to add/delete or we can have a discussion on the same. I have also copied my colleague Indira Ramamoorthy who is the training Coordinator @ Public Affairs Foundation.

Thanks & Regards

Feedback on Training- BMS College of Law

What did you like most about this programme?

1. They were really interactive sessions. I really loved doing the assignments and the breakout sessions were very fun. THANK YOU FOR THIS WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE.
2. Interacting with teachers and it helped me improve my communication skills in my professional and personal life. I Learned that my morals and ethics would affect my workplace environment a lot. Helped me realise many mistakes I made while socialising with people.
3. I liked the way ma'am explains everything in a detailed manner and made us understand a great deal of things. She also made us understand effective communication methods which will help us a lot in the coming years. Thank you ma'am for your time.
4. Mostly, I liked how ma'am would push us for active participation. I learnt about body language which helped me a lot, the importance of communication and the breakout sessions and report writing were the best things.
5. Gave us an opportunity to blend in and learn a lot of value that we will need in life personally and professionally. It was extremely interactive and an amazing experience.

What you did not like about this programme?

1. The fact that it was an online programme. I it would have been fun if it were offline.
2. Some of the topics were explained too briefly which I think maybe was not needed.
3. Not all of the students did interact for the program
4. Nothing I did not like, I loved every bit of it!
5. The programme was a bit short. I would have enjoyed a longer session.
6. Only thing I didn't like was that it wasn't for a long period. We could have had it for a month more and grasp the max possible.
7. Only that it was online. I think it would have been even more fun and interactive if it was done offline. But ma'am has pulled it off very efficiently though it was online. Thanks for the session...!

B.M.S. COLLEGE OF LAW

"Report on Certificate Course on Value Education -Effective Communication, Professional Ethics and Human Values."

Date : 11 October - 13 November,2021.

Resource Person : Dr. Annapoorna Ravichander
Executive Director,
Public Affairs Foundation .

The certificate program was introduced by B.M.S. COLLEGE OFF LAW to educate students by both value and moral based education

The Resource person started the course with an introduction about the importance of Communication. Communication is basically talking or speaking and conversing with others. As students struggle with language barriers which makes a disadvantage for sharing opinions in classroom. The breakout sessions has class helped the students communicate well with their pier groups. The topics like Team work, Team building, conflict management, problem-solving and decision making helped them to understand the importance of life skills in day to day life.

Next few sessions were about how to write a report. A report is a document that presents information in an organized format for a specific audience and purpose. the speaker has taught the students how to write a report, the types of report writing, editing the report, using appropriate words, how to begin the report with a title, adding table of contents, the abstracts, adding proper verbs and prepositions and avoiding gerunds. Report should be written keeping in mind the topic of the report, as whom the report is being written, the audience and how to end a report.

The next few sessions were about self- confidence. How to be confident in life, how to increase confidence in oneself so that we can face any situations in our life with a positive approach.

Life without values is like ship without rudder. Education without values or edification will fall short of achieving its goal. Mere teaching, learning, improving knowledge and skills without building character and mind may not contribute to the holistic development of children, which is a must for the world to become a better place. The resource person in detail spoke about the different kinds of values like, ethical or moral values, doctrinal or ideological values, social values and aesthetic values. She stressed upon Values tend to influence attitudes and behaviour and help to solve common human problems.

Report

A.D.R Add-on Course

15 days Add-on Course on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) was held from 14-06-2021 to 30-06-2021. This was as an attempt to educate the students in the growing field of ADR and pique their interest in the Subject of Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanism.

Shri. Prashant Chandra was invited as the resource person to the said course. A Problem was given to the student prior to the session, the aim was to understand ADR through the said problem at hand.

The session started off with the welcoming of the resource person, Shri. Prashant Chandra, Principle BMSCL Anita D'Souza ma'am, and all the participants. The session started with a brief introduction of the resource person's immense experience in the field. The day's session contained with the speaker assigning various characters to from the complainant side to carious students and discussing the possible Civil recourse that could be adopted by the complainant in the said problem.

After a fruitful discussion about the legal recourses available to the complainant. The session proceeded towards assigning various characters from the respondent side of the problem to student and discussed various legal recourses and responses available to the respondent. The session also involved revisitation of the previous day's recourses and available rebuttals. A doubt clearance session was also contained regarding all the discussion that had happened. The session ended with the emphasis on the importance of Civil procedure before going into ADR processes.

The Resource person discussed about the importance of Alternative dispute resolution in the legal system. A presentation was made as to what Alternative dispute resolution is, and how many types of ADR are available. Then a detailed approach was taken by the speaker towards explaining about Arbitration and how it is a privatized form of the court. A Brief touch up as to the various choices involved and advantages of arbitration were also discussed.

The resources person also discussed Conciliation was a way to ensure a way to solve dispute and ensure that the relation between the parties also survives. The Understanding was done with a refence to the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. An attempt to understand Conciliation through the Problem as a means was also employed.

The session also explained how a mediation works, all the advantages and features of a mediation. The session also consisted of a comparative analysis between mediation and judicial proceeding and Conciliation.

Bull Temple Road, Basavanagudi, Bengaluru-560019

MODULES FOR CERTIFICATE COURSE IN ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYSTEM

While Courts and judiciary are the recognised pillars of India's legal system, Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is gradually becoming a preferred method of resolving commercial and personal disputes. Be it a multi-million dollar cross-border construction industry dispute or a purely domestic dispute between husband and wife, ADR techniques are applicable in wide variety of contexts with many benefits over traditional litigation. However, many lawyers, consultants and professionals struggle to approach conflict resolution correctly and thus lack the required skills.

This course outlines the diverse ADR practice prevailing in India and its utility across different settings – both domestic and international. The aim of this course is to discuss practical applicability of each Alternative Dispute Resolution technique and to create skilful negotiators, mediators and arbitrators to cater to the requirements of various segments of people both domestic and international.

It is a good practice to indulge in such programmes which give us the knowledge outside textbooks but I as a student of 8th sem feel that I'm not there yet to perceive what the speaker is explaining . A very good session overall. |

CERTIFICATE COURSE ON YOGA AND PHYSICAL FITNESS

Yoga is for everyone. Yoga improves strength, balance and flexibility, it helps with back pain relief, it can ease the symptoms of various joint pains, yoga also benefits heart health, it helps in managing stress and promotes better self-care. The various asanas – sukhasana, tadasana, trikonasana, mayurasana, naukasana, dhanurasana, bhujangasana, shavasana to name a few have proven to be beneficial on regular practice.

The pandemic has driven the desk culture back and a need for an active physical lifestyle is a calling that needs to be answered. Yoga helps to maintain an active physical lifestyle and to facilitate the same, a Certificate Course on Yoga and Physical fitness was conducted from May to August, 2021- comprising over 30 sessions. The sessions were open for both Students and Staff of the Institution. Ms. Jayakumari and Ms. Thanuja, Certified Yoga Trainers, were the Resource persons. The sessions were split into Yoga, Fitness and Meditation. The Staff and Students participated actively in all the sessions and were awarded Certificates.

Introduction

What is Consumer Law?

A law specialization that protects the interests of consumers/ public at large, Consumer Law ensures that corporate/ businesses do not exploit consumers. Consumer Law is a group of laws that protects people/ consumers from unfair and exploiting business practices.

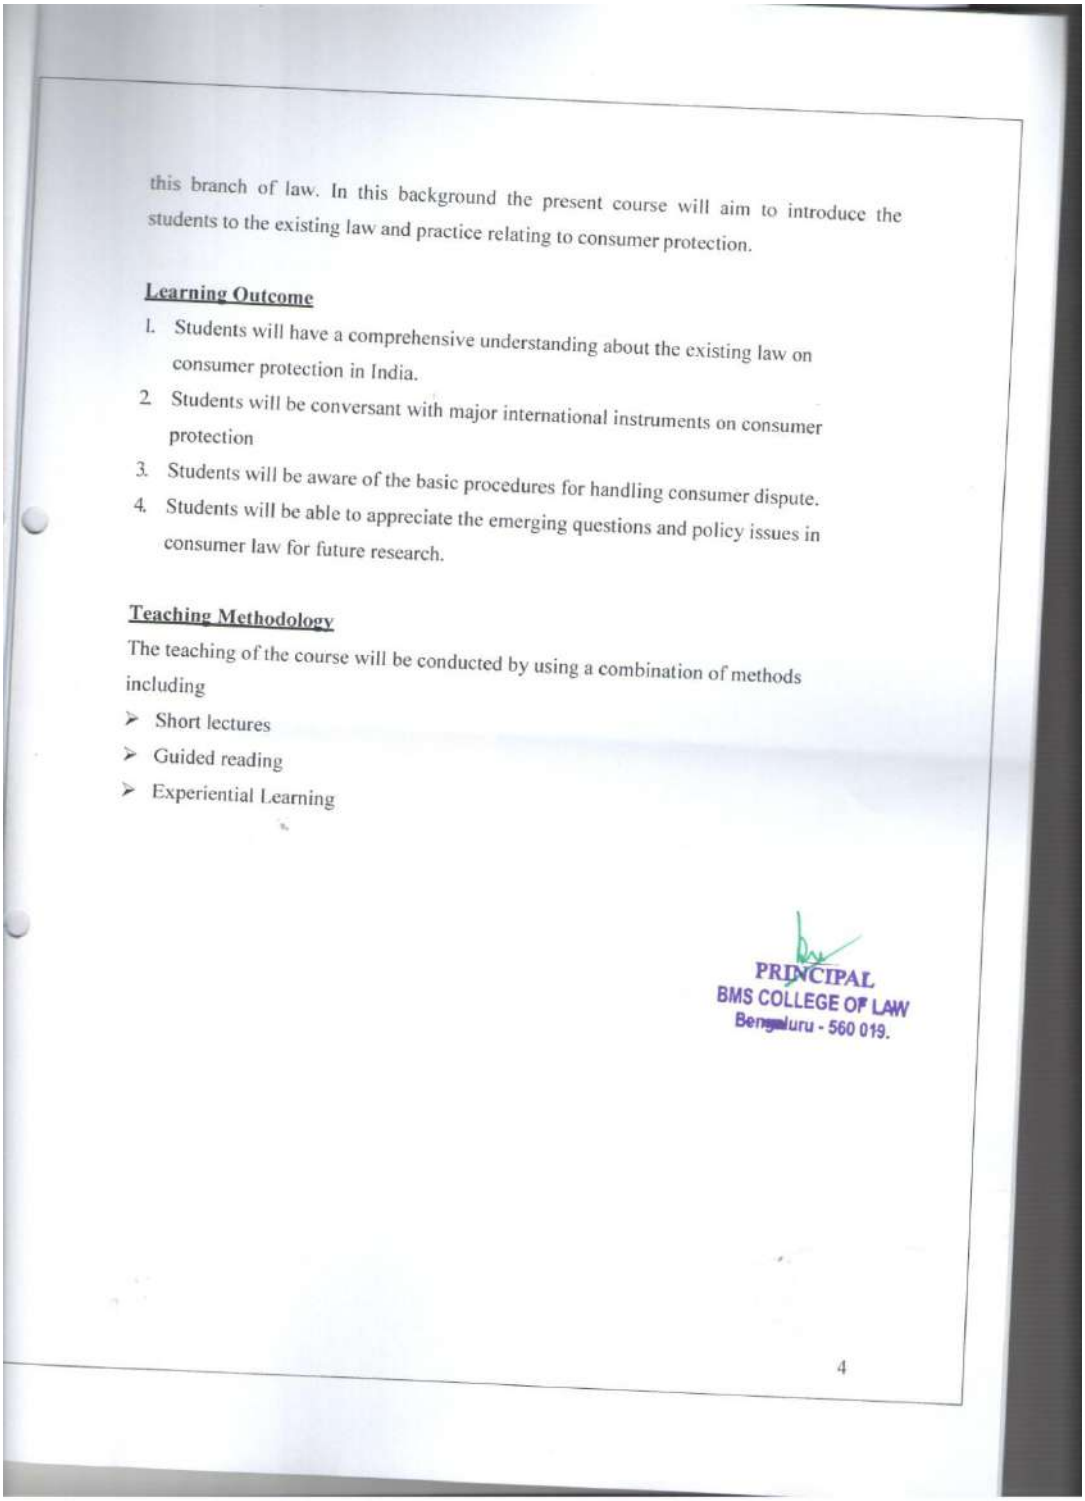

Thus, Consumer Law is that area of law which offers protection to the consumer when they head out to purchase a product or a service. Consumer Law ensures that people are protected against issues like fraud or mis-selling. Consumer Law also ensures that the market abides by the rules and regulations as listed out by the directive of this law.

Candidates can pursue undergraduate (UG) as well as postgraduate (PG) programmes in the field of Consumer Law. In UG level courses candidates need to pursue integrated law programms in order to specialize in the field of Consumer Law whereas in a PG level law course aspirants can straight away specialize in Consumer Law.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Consumer considerations and their protection are very old concepts, but in the last decade there has been a significant development in this branch of law. Globalization of trade, market-dominated economy, information revolution and emergence of e-commerce has further enhanced this process. A greater importance has been assigned to consumer law at a global basis. All these factors have increased more scope for research and advocacy for creating a consumer friendly regulatory framework. The Indian legal framework has also undergone a substantial change to comply with the international norms. The subject has received tremendous importance among the contemporary legal fraternity in India. The legal experts are emphasizing on the need for teaching consumer law very seriously to present generation law students for making them equipped to handle issues relating to this branch of law. In this background the present course will aim to introduce the students to the existing law and practice relating to consumer protection.

Learning Outcome

1. Students will have a comprehensive understanding about the existing law on consumer protection in India.
2. Students will be conversant with major international instruments on consumer protection
3. Students will be aware of the basic procedures for handling consumer dispute.
4. Students will be able to appreciate the emerging questions and policy issues in consumer law for future research.

Teaching Methodology

The teaching of the course will be conducted by using a combination of methods including

- Short lectures
- Guided reading
- Experiential Learning

Introduction

What is Public Service Guarantee Laws?

The Karnataka Government took initiative to assure providing hassle-free government services to its people. As a result of which Karnataka SAKALA Services Act was enacted in the year 2011 and the same was amended in 2014. The main objective of the act is to providing guarantee of services to its citizens within in a stipulated time limit and Karnataka is the 10th state to take this step under Public Service Guarantee Laws. This programme is backed by comprehensive information technology network portal so that the service will be reached to every individual within a short span of time. The first phase of SAKALA was launched on 1 March 2012 in Bidar, Chitradurga, Dharwad and Dakshina Kannada districts, subsequently the programmed was launched in the entire Karnataka state covering 151 services and 11 departments by the end of April 2012. Additional 114 services added under 2 phase, 110 services during third phase, 44 service in 4th phase, 28 & 32 services were added during 5th & 6th Phase respectively. Totally 478 services covering 47 departments comes under purview of SAKALA with 135 services through online. Nearly 6.12 crore citizens have accessed to SAKALA service portal. Service provided through this initiative are cast and income certificate, Residence certificate, Registration of Birth & Death, driving license, Khata certificate, Ration card, copy of FIR/ Petitions etc.

In order to meet the needs of the people the SAKALA Act was amended in 2014 for expanding the services and included more department under it. The main objective of the legislation to maintain more transparency in the governance especially in e-governance and to provide a transparent on-line monitoring mechanism for the services as requested by citizens of Karnataka and the responsibility is take up by SAKALA Mission which has provided IT consultant to assist District Magistrate in all the districts who will be the Chief Nodal Officer. When a request for the service is made by the citizens by filing an application. He / she will receive an acknowledgement slip having 15 digits number called the Guarantee of Services to Citizen (GSC) number.

There is a need to create awareness among the mass about the usefulness of SAKALA Act. For which law college must educate students about it and subsequently students will empower people through different approaches and a study about the practical aspects of the ACT is a need of the hour.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The Certificate Course is aimed to analyse the legislative provisions of KAKALA. To make participants to understand the feasibility of practical application of the Act in providing services to people and to bridge the gap between the government services and its receiver. The course will help the participants to understand the significance of SAKALA in the field of e- governance. The course also aims at the following:

- To understand the application of SAKALA act in maintaining transparency in e-governance.
- To understand the intricacy of grievance redressal mechanism

PRINCIPAL
BMS COLLEGE OF LAW
Bengaluru - 560 019.

- To understand the role of SAKALA mission in monitoring the services
- To conduct field work on various issues related SAKALA and problems faced by the people in receiving the services from the government
- To understand the administrative reform initiative through new project SAKALASAKHI in few taluks for providing services to child and women folk.
- For better understanding of the lacunas in the government departments in implementation of the scheme.

Learning Outcome

Participants will have better understanding about SAKALA scheme, can create awareness among the mass and help them to avail the service without facing any hurdles. It's an added advantage for law students to know about the implementation mechanism of SAKALA in government of Karnataka. They understand the procedure involved in redressal mechanism, including the appellate authority, application fee, fine amount and compensation which can be awarded by the redressal authority.

Teaching Methodology

Regular class room teaching methods with PPT will be adopted. Syllabus will be explained with practical aspects and the current examples. As part of the course field study will be conducted by the participants as when it is required by adopting questionnaire or schedule techniques. During the field study data will be collected from people. Government departments, etc.

Programme details

The certificate course will be conducted by engaging 35 class covering the syllabus.

The resource persons for course will be consist of renowned persons from various fields related to SAKALA such as experts, NGOs involved in SAKALA awareness programme, government officials, etc. will be invited to address the participants.

Study materials will be shared with the participants before or during the course.

Group activities and discussion will be conducted among the participants to make the course more interesting and interactive.

Dear Dr. Anitha
Thanks for your invite and the details about the proposed Certificate Course on Consumer Law
I am mentioning few thoughts on this and kindly have a look
Whether the certificate course is only on Consumer Protection Act or Consumer Law which may include other related legislations
If that be so, we may have to include consumer protection related legislations. A decision is to be taken on this
I suggest we restrict only to the provisions of the Consumer Protection Act and a bit of historical evolution of consumer rights and movement
Once the above is decided a module is to be prepared for distribution to students. The same may be uploaded on your website as well
The marks to be awarded to be decided by your college
Number of lectures/classes to be decided what will be the number of students?
pattern of question paper for the certificate course to be decided
If you can think over on the above issues , we can start off
Pending the above, I am going ahead with preparing the Module on Consumer Protection Act thanks

The speaker addressed the students regarding the consumer cases related to banking and what are the deficiencies in service in the banking sector. The speaker spoke about the recent merging of few state banks into one as they were not able to provide sufficient service to the consumers. The speaker gave an instance of deficiency in service by the banking sectors in cases of Demand Draft, ATM card service as to how even a spouse cannot make use of the other's card, issue relating to digital signature so on and so forth. He gave some practical scenario in day to day activities and how it can lead to fault of the consumers and not that of the bank and vice versa as well. He also emphasised regarding the Banking ombudsman scheme, powers and functions.

On 21/05/2019. Ms. Shivani Dutta, Assistant Professor, IFIM Law College, Bengaluru delivered a special lecture on Consumer Law relating to medical negligence.

Answer all Questions. Each Question Carries Equal Marks.

1. Explain the following:

(a) Rights of a Consumer

(b) Territorial and Pecuniary Jurisdiction of Consumer Grievance Redressal Agencies

(c) 'Consumer' as defined under Consumer Protection Act, 1986

2. Discuss the salient features of

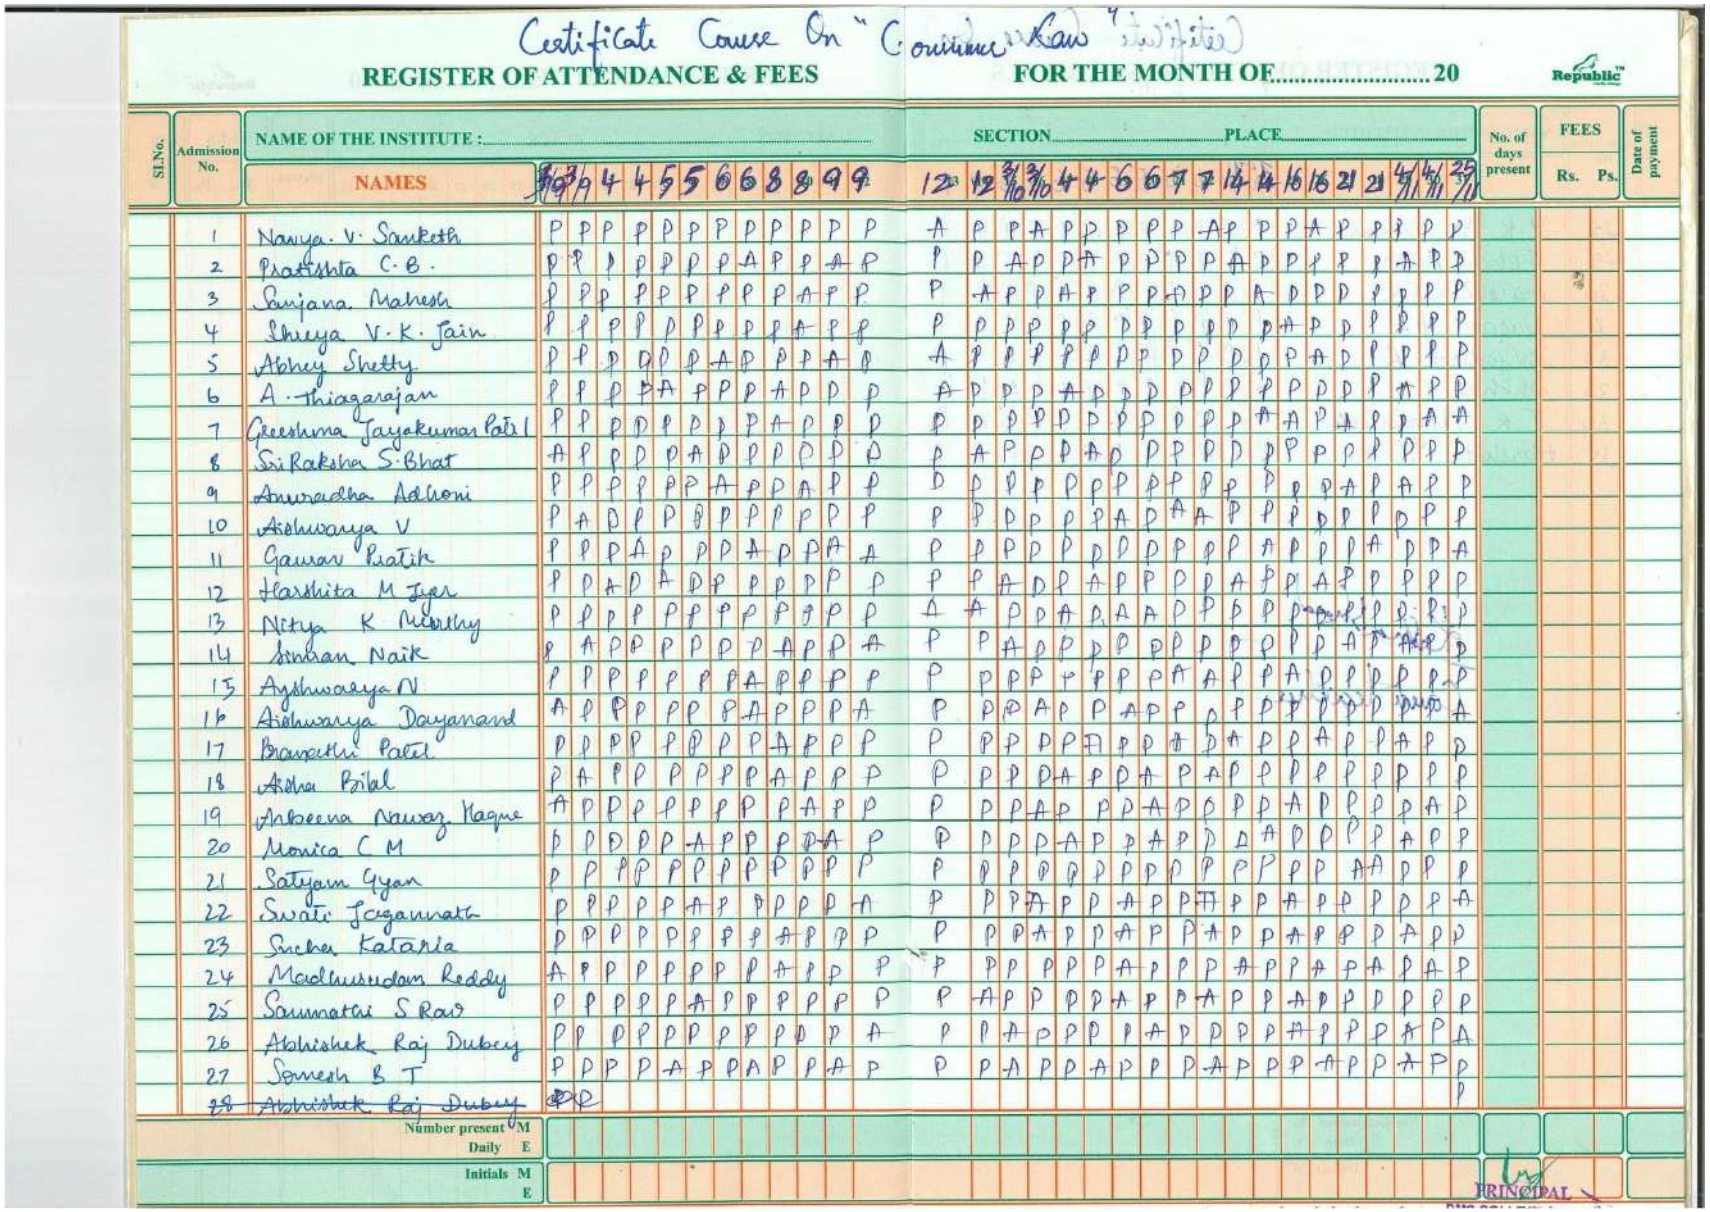

(a) Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006

(b) Legal Metrology Act, 2009

3. What are the remedial measures available to a consumer as provided under Consumer Protection Act, 1986?

4. Briefly explain the procedure adopted by the consumer redressal agencies in redressing complaints.

5. India Seed Corporation Ltd. is a Government of India company. Its main functions are to arrange for production of quality seeds of different varieties in the farms of registered growers and supply the same to the farmers. Manjunath is engaged in agriculture/seed production in Karnataka. He purchased 46 kg. of KBSH-1 Sunflower seeds from Area Manager of the company in Belgaum. He undertook cultivation by adopting the recognized modes of preparing the field and irrigation and also used the prescribed fertilizer but there was germination only in 60% seeds and the height of the plants was uneven. The germination in the remaining 40% plants was slow. Not only this, flowering not take place simultaneously. At the request of Manjunath, Area Manager inspected his field and agreed that there was less germination and the growth of the plants was uneven, but declined to give any assurance for payment of compensation. Aggrieved, Manjunath filed a complaint under Section 12 of the Consumer Act and prayed for award of compensation of Rs.1,79,505/-

CERTIFICATE COURSE IN ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYSTEM

About the Course:

The Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism, as the name suggests, evolved against the conventional method of dispute settlement by courts. It is not disputed to state that courts take ample time to settle any dispute as well as they are expensive too. On the other side, ADR mechanism is less bound by procedural formalities and speedy in giving results. For this reason, ADR is appreciated by many countries around the world. India also became part of this change in the year 1996 when its enacted the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The Act is replica of the UNCITRAL Model Law.

Objectives:

Today alternative disputes resolution systems have become more relevant than before both at local, national and international levels. Certain of the disputes, by nature are fit to be resolved through specific method of resolution. Each of these dispute, resolution systems involve different style of planning and execution. ROLE PLAY- SUIT FOR EJECTMENT

Rahul is the owner of shop No. 8 on M. G. Road. Akash approached him and requested to give him the shop on rent to run a stationary shop.

Rahul and Akash entered into an agreement whereby, a monthly rental was fixed at Rs. 7,500/- and deposit of Rs. 75,000/- for a period of 3 years.

One of the conditions in the agreement was in the event of default in the payment of rent for 3 consecutive months, the agreement would be automatically terminated and after deducting the arrears of rent and other expenses the balance deposit would be returned.

Akash was running his shop and paying rent in time for 18 months. Thereafter, due to recession and slump in the market his business started getting affected and he could not pay the rent.

Rahul waited for 3 months and thereafter orally requested Akash to pay the arrears of rent immediately.

Akash pleaded for time on the ground that his business was not doing well. This went on for some more time and after 7 months of not receiving rent Rahul issued a formal notice and informed Akash that he would like to take back possession of the shop immediately and as per the terms of agreement he would withhold a sum of Rs. 52,500/- towards arrears of rent for 7 months and return the balance of Rs. 22,500/- from out of the deposit amount.

As Rahul did not receive any response to his legal notice, he filed a suit for ejectment along with claim for arrears of rent and incidental expenses.

The matter is referred to mediation for settlement.

CERTIFICATE COURSE IN ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYSTEM

About the Course:

The Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism, as the name suggests, evolved against the conventional method of dispute settlement by courts. It is not disputed to state that courts take ample time to settle any dispute as well as they are expensive too. On the other side, ADR mechanism is less bound by procedural formalities and speedy in giving results. For this reason, ADR is appreciated by many countries around the world. India also became part of this change in the year 1996 when its enacted the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. The Act is replica of the UNCITRAL Model Law.

Objectives:

Today alternative disputes resolution systems have become more relevant than before both at local, national and international levels. Certain of the disputes, by nature are fit to be resolved through specific method of resolution. Each of these dispute, resolution systems involve different style of planning and execution. The skills involved are also different as also preparation. This course trains the students in ADRs. The course teacher shall administer simulation exercises for each of the methods

Course Outcome: After the completion of the Certificate Course the student will be able to :

- Explain ADRS in ancient, medieval and modern period. Analyze the different methods of dispute resolution; Inquisitorial method, Adversial method, other methods-both formal and informal like Arbitration, conciliation, Negotiation, Mediation, etc. Explain the Advantages and disadvantages of ADR method.
- Define and discuss what is arbitration, meaning, general principles of arbitration, kinds of arbitration, arbitral award
- Define and explain what conciliation is? Meaning, different kinds of conciliation
- Discuss negotiation explain various approaches and phases to negotiation
- Explain the Essential characteristics of mediation process

ROLE PLAY- SUIT FOR EJECTMENT

Rahul is the owner of shop No. 8 on M. G. Road. Akash approached him and requested to give him the shop on rent to run a stationary shop.

Rahul and Akash entered into an agreement whereby, a monthly rental was fixed at Rs. 7,500/- and deposit of Rs. 75,000/- for a period of 3 years.

One of the conditions in the agreement was in the event of default in the payment of rent for 3 consecutive months, the agreement would be automatically terminated and after deducting the arrears of rent and other expenses the balance deposit would be returned.

Akash was running his shop and paying rent in time for 18 months. Thereafter, due to recession and slump in the market his business started getting affected and he could not pay the rent.

Rahul waited for 3 months and thereafter orally requested Akash to pay the arrears of rent immediately.

Akash pleaded for time on the ground that his business was not doing well. This went on for some more time and after 7 months of not receiving rent Rahul issued a formal notice and informed Akash that he would like to take back possession of the shop immediately and as per the terms of agreement he would withhold a sum of Rs. 52,500/- towards arrears of rent for 7 months and return the balance of Rs. 22,500/- from out of the deposit amount.

As Rahul did not receive any response to his legal notice, he filed a suit for ejectment along with claim for arrears of rent and incidental expenses.

The matter is referred to mediation for settlement.

ROLE PLAY- MONEY SUIT

Mahesh and Sharath are known to one another for a long time. The marriage of Sharath's daughter was fixed and he was falling short of money. He approached his friend Mahesh for a hand loan of Rs.2, 00,000/-

Mahesh agreed to lend Rs. 2, 00,000/- on the condition that it should be returned within 6 months with interest at 10% p.a.

Sharath agreed and at the time of receiving the amount gave an undertaking on plain paper that he would return Rs. 2, 00, 000/- with interest in six months time.

The marriage ceremony of Sharath's daughter was performed smoothly and Mahesh also attended and blessed the couple.

After Six months, Mahesh asked Sharath to return the amount borrowed along with interest and Sharath assured that he would do so but he would need some more time.

In spite of repeated requests made by Mahesh, Sharath went on giving excuses so Mahesh got a legal notice issued to Sharath calling upon him to pay the principal amount of Rs. 2,00,000/- along with accumulated interest of Rs.16,000/-

In spite of receipt of the legal notice Sharath did not honor his commitment.

Mahesh filed a suit for recovery. Looking at the relationship between the parties the Court referred the matter to mediation.
